

Annie Wong, M.B.A.

Director, UC Davis Health Contracts
Managed Care, Provider Relations

Annie Wong serves as the Director of UC Davis Health Contracts. Her responsibilities include strategic planning, development, oversight, review and execution of contracts for The Regents of the University of California on behalf of UC Davis Health, which comprises the UC Davis Medical Center, School of Medicine, Betty Irene Moore School of Nursing, UC Davis Children's Hospital, UC Davis Home Health and the Ambulatory Clinics. Wong is an advisor to UC Davis Health leadership, specifically the offices of the Vice Chancellor/CEO, the Medical Center CEO, the School of Medicine Dean, and the Practice Management Group. In this role, she oversees all health care contracting issues involving hospital and professional services, as well as external relations related to the group practice.

In addition, Wong is responsible for administrative oversight and direction of managed care operations, managed care member services, payer and provider relations and private industry clinical trials contracting for the health system. In 1992, Wong joined UC Davis and subsequently held positions in budgeting, decision support and strategic analysis and planning. Since 2003, she has led UC Davis Health Contracts.

Before UC Davis Health, Wong worked as the finance manager responsible for budgets, productivity, physician compensation and incentive compensation for a physician owned multispecialty medical group. She earned an M.B.A. at Golden Gate University.
