

UC Davis Dermatology Diversity Visiting Student Scholarship

The UC Davis Dermatology Residency Program is pleased to offer a Diversity Visiting Student Scholarship for visiting students in need of financial assistance to attend our Dermatology Clerkship Course (DER 460). We will offer up to two $2000 scholarships for travel and/or housing-related costs associated with participating in the clerkship. Through the application, students should demonstrate how their background and experience will enhance an environment of inclusive excellence in our residency program.

The deadline to apply is June 2, 2025.

The UC Davis Dermatology Residency Program is committed to promoting diversity, equity, and inclusion in Medicine. We invite underrepresented in medicine (URIM) medical students attending our UC Davis Dermatology away rotations to apply for the Diversity Visiting Student Scholarship.

Scholarship Application Process

Apply to the UC Davis Dermatology Clerkship DER 460 through the VSLO website.

1. How would your background and experience help to promote an environment of inclusive excellence in the UC Davis Dermatology Residency Program? (Not to exceed 250 words)
2. Provide a letter of recommendation (from a medical school faculty member in any medical specialty).

Email your responses and attach your letter of recommendation to our Residency Coordinator, Christina Roland (cmroland@ucdavis.edu).

Scholarship Eligibility

- Applicant is a medical student entering 4th year in July, 2025, in good standing.
- Applicant has applied and has been offered UCD Dermatology rotation through VSLO program.
- Applicant has demonstrated commitment to inclusive excellence.
- Applicant self-identifies as a member of an underrepresented in medicine group.

For additional information on UCD Dermatology / Residency Program, please visit:

UC Davis Dermatology Residency Program