We’ve all heard the phrase, “never judge a book by its cover;” however, how many of us struggle to truly live by that custom? There are many perceptions and assumptions about what is and what is not a disability. Come to the Oct. 3 Diversity Dialogue event to learn, discuss and understand some of the many unique ways people with visible and invisible, temporary and permanent disabilities live, work and play.

RSVP to: https://understanding_diversabilities.eventbrite.com