

The Heart of Medicine
A Medical Student Support Group

5:30 – 6:30 pm, Bi-weekly, Wednesdays, Starting August 29th, 2018

Location: UC Davis Medical Center, Sacramento
Facilitator: Stephen Simonson, Psy.D.

A supportive space to connect around and explore the complexities of being a medical student. The goal of the group is to improve personal development while offering support and encouragement to your fellow student.

For more information or to register to participate in this group contact Dr. Stephen Simonson directly at ssimonson@ucdavis.edu

After the second meeting of this 7-week series the group will be closed.
