

“Connecting Worlds”

a 40-hour

Healthcare Interpreter Training

This is a 40-hour industry standard introductory training for medical interpreters. It satisfies the NBCMI / CCHI national certification prerequisite requirement.

This training is not a guarantee of employment at UC Davis Health

- This class will be held on Zoom -

This training includes:

- 40 hours of virtual classroom time and homework.
- Non-language specific training group - all languages are welcome!
- Activities, terminology review, practice.
- Case studies, role play.
- In-depth study of medical interpreter roles, ethics, legal issues.
- An overview of the latest video interpreting technology.
- Presentations from industry professionals.
- An overview of the two national certification exams.
- Tips on national exam preparation and requirements.
- A full training binder.
- Certificate of completion.

5 FRIDAYS

September 11 –
October 9, 2026

When?

Five Fridays, 8 a.m. - 4 p.m.:

- September 11, 18, 25
- October 2, 9 in 2026

Where?

Online training on Zoom

Cost:

$500 per person
(cash or check only, payable to “UC Regents”)

How to register?

By email:

MIstraining@health.ucdavis.edu

Requirements:

- you must be at least 18 years of age;
- you must have at least 6 months of interpreting experience (paid or unpaid, in any setting);
- you must submit all required paperwork and sign an agreement;
- attendance of all 5 training days is required to receive a certificate;
- you must have appropriate technology available to join this training.

Registration is open
June 1 – July 17
2026