

Scott Thomas MacDonald, M.D.

Philosophy of Care	I value listening and understanding patients as much as knowing medical science and problem solving. I view prevention and partnerships with patients as an ideal approach to keeping and making people healthier. This is informed by my expertise in data, analytics, and informatics.
Clinical Interests	Dr. MacDonald is a primary care internist with broad expertise and experience in adult medicine.
Research/Academic Interests	Dr. MacDonald likes research opportunities to improve the usability of health information systems and ways to help physicians and patients use these tools to improve health outcomes.
