

Wetona Suzanne Eidson-Ton, M.D., M.S.

Philosophy of Care	Dr. Eidson-Ton provides family and patient-centered care to women on Labor and Delivery and their families. She is particularly interested in practicing cultural humble care and learning from patients and families about what is important to them in the birthing process.
Clinical Interests	Dr. Eidson-Ton is a family physician, with special interest and training in obstetrics, women's health and adolescent health. She welcomes all patients, including and especially LGBTQIA+ patients. Her outpatient practice is in a local Federally Qualified Health Center, and she provides care at UC Davis HEALTH in the University Birthing Center.
Research/Academic Interests	Dr. Eidson-Ton's academic interests include training medical students and residents in primary, women's health and obstetrics; advocacy for rural health care; and health equity, diversity and inclusion in the health care setting.
