

Hilary A. Brodie, M.D., Ph.D. Endowment in Otolaryngology Visiting Elective Clerkship for Health Equity

The Department of Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery is pleased to announce the Hilary A. Brodie, M.D., Ph.D. Endowment in Otolaryngology Visiting Elective Clerkship for Health Equity. Medical students are invited to apply to the endowment if they are pursuing a career in Otolaryngology and are dedicated to serve and care for all people with a commitment to reduce health disparities and to promote equity in all communities.

Medical students chosen for the endowment will receive up to $2,500 for reimbursement to help cover travel, housing, and/or application expenses upon successful completion of a 4-week sub-I Otolaryngology Visiting Elective Clerkship.

This award cannot be combined with other travel awards or medicine scholarships.

Medical students must meet the following requirements to be eligible:

- Be in good academic standing at a LCME accredited medical school
- Have an expected graduation date in the Spring 2026
- Intentions to pursue a career in Otolaryngology
- Must submit a formal visiting clerkship application to UC Davis, Dept. of Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery in the AAMC Visiting Student Learning Opportunities (VSLO) program meeting all institutional requirements

Medical students interested in applying for the endowment need to provide the following:

1. Current curriculum vitae
2. Photo
3. Personal statement with no more than 800 words citing your reasons for applying to the clerkship and demonstrate a strong commitment to improve the health of all communities especially in rural regions or historically medically underserved communities
4. Letter of recommendation from a faculty member
