Hilary A. Brodie, MD, PhD
Diversity Endowment for the Visiting Student Clerkship Program

The UC Davis Health, Department of Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery is committed to supporting under-represented minorities and/or those from economically disadvantaged backgrounds interested in the field of medicine. The Hilary A. Brodie, MD, PhD Diversity Endowment was established to help support and encourage under-represented 4th year medical students to apply for the Otolaryngology visiting clerkship elective at UC Davis Health.

Medical students chosen for the Endowment will receive up to $2,500 for reimbursement to help cover travel, housing, and/or application expenses upon successful completion of the rotation.

To be eligible for the Endowment, students must meet these requirements:

- 4th year U.S. medical student under-represented in medicine as defined by AAMC
- Good academic standing at a LCME accredited medical school
- Intentions to pursue a career in Otolaryngology
- Submit a formal visiting clerkship application in the AAMC Visiting Student Learning Opportunities \(VSLO\) Program and be selected for a rotation

Please forward your application and supporting documents to the program coordinator, Lisa Yee-Isbell, at lyeeisbell@ucdavis.edu.
