Hilary A. Brodie, MD, PhD
Endowment for Diversity in Medical Student Otolaryngology Visiting
Elective Clerkship

The Department of Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery is pleased to announce the Hilary A. Brodie, MD, PhD Endowment for Diversity in Otolaryngology Medical Student Visiting Elective Clerkship. We invite 4th year medical students who plan to pursue a career in Otolaryngology and who are from an underrepresented group, as defined by AAMC, to apply for this endowment funding.

Medical students chosen for the Endowment will receive up to $2,500 for reimbursement to help cover travel, housing, and/or application expenses upon successful completion of a 4 week Otolaryngology Visiting Elective Clerkship as an acting intern.

Medical students must meet the following requirements to be eligible:

- Be in good academic standing at a LCME accredited medical school
- Have an expected graduation date in the Spring 2023
- Self-identify as belonging to a racial and ethnic minority group traditionally underrepresented in Otolaryngology as defined in AAMC
- Intentions to pursue a career in Otolaryngology
- Must submit a formal visiting clerkship application in the AAMC Visiting Student Learning Opportunities (VSLO) program meeting all institutional requirements

Medical students interested in applying for the endowment need to provide the following:

1. Current curriculum vitae (cv)
2. Photo
3. Personal statement with no more than 800 words citing your reasons for applying to the clerkship and your interest in Otolaryngology
4. Letter of recommendation from a faculty member

Please forward your materials or any questions to the program coordinator, Lisa Yee-Isbell, at lyeesisbell@ucdavis.edu.
