

Earth Month

UC Davis Health celebrates Earth Day all month long with exciting events and a virtual bingo challenge for employees and students.

Sustainability Walking Tour

Wednesday, April 10 | 12 – 1 p.m.

Join the Director of Sustainability, Kristina Cullen, on a sustainability walking tour around the beautiful medical center campus. The walk will share more than a dozen sustainable points of interest, covering approximately one mile. No reservation is needed! Simply pop on your sneakers, grab a (reusable) water bottle, and meet at the corner of 45th and X St.

Earth Month Celebration

Wednesday, April 17 | 11 a.m. – 1 p.m.

Stop by the Education Building Rotunda (outdoor breezeway) to learn about the many sustainability-related projects that are happening at UC Davis Health. Connect with three local farmers who will offer insight on locally grown produce, and free samples!

Meet local sustainability representatives from:

- Sacramento Regional Transit
- Commute with Enterprise
- SMUD
- Medline
- Republic Services
- Clark Pacific

Get a free bicycle helmet by completing the Helmet Hair Don't Care pledge. Green Commuter Program and UC DPD staff will help you find the right fit! Helmets will be available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Outdoor Yoga | 12 – 1 p.m.

Join the UC Living Fit Forever team for Earth-themed yoga on the Vanderhoef Lawn during the Earth Month Celebration! No registration required.

Earth Month Bingo Challenge

April 1 – April 30

Celebrate our planet all month long by participating in the bingo challenge! Complete five sustainable actions to help our Earth and enter into a prize drawing for wireless headphones or free lunch voucher.

How to Play:

1. Download the bingo card and check off your sustainable actions throughout the month.
2. Complete five actions in a row, column, or diagonal to get a bingo.
3. Submit your response by April 30 to be entered into a prize drawing.

Earn a bonus entry when you submit a photo of yourself completing an action or attending an Earth Month event.
