Patient care is my top concern. I want each patient to have the best outcome that science can provide in a warm friendly environment.

Dr. Eisen's clinical and research interests include surgical outcome studies, hidradenitis suppurativa, common and rare types of skin cancers, lasers, photodynamic therapy and patient centered care. In addition, Dr. Eisen has an active interest in medical education.

© 2019 UC Regents