

Anthony John Bhe, B.A.,M.D.

Philosophy of Care

In addition to helping my patients recover from their acute illness, I aim to serve as a partner and a guide for patients and their families through their hospitalization and back into their lives in the community.

Clinical Interests

Dr. Bhe is a general Internal Medicine hospitalist who cares for a broad range of patients with acute and chronic medical conditions in the inpatient setting.

Research/Academic Interests

Dr. Bhe's academic interests focus on medical education, including the development and delivery of curriculum that help medical students learn how to care for individuals in the clinical setting in a empathetic and patient-centered fashion.
