

Suzanne S. Teuber, M.D.

Philosophy of Care	I look forward to meeting everyone who comes to clinic and hearing their story. My aim is for each person to know that they were heard, valued, understood, and leave with a plan for evaluation and management.
Clinical Interests	Dr. Teuber specializes in allergy and clinical immunology and cares for people with a wide range of allergic and immunologic disorders, such as hives, allergic rhinitis, and immunodeficiency, with a particular interest in food allergies and anaphylaxis.
Research/Academic Interests	Dr. Teuber's main research is in the area of characterizing tree nut and seed allergens, and investigating cross-reactivity among food allergens.
