

Charles L. Scott, M.D.

Clinical Interests Dr. Scott is Chief, Division of Psychiatry and the Law, Forensic Psychiatry Training Director, and Professor of Clinical Psychiatry at the University of California, Davis Medical Center in Sacramento. He is board certified in Forensic Psychiatry, General Psychiatry, Child and Adolescent Psychiatry, and Addiction Psychiatry. He is the current president of the American Academy of Psychiatry and the Law (AAPL) and is also past-president of the Association of Directors of Forensic Psychiatric Fellowships. He has served as a member of the AAPL national task forces to develop guidelines for the evaluation of criminal responsibility and competency to stand trial. He is also one of the four AAPL Forensic Psychiatry Review Course Faculty instructors and in 2008 received the AAPL award as the most outstanding forensic psychiatry fellowship program instructor in the United States. Dr. Scott has served as a forensic psychiatric consultant to jails, prisons, maximum security forensic inpatient units, and to the National Football League (NFL) providing training on violence risk assessment for NFL counselors. He has been editor and co-editor on four books related to forensic psychiatry and has published articles and book chapters in the areas of risk assessment of violence and aggression, the death penalty, juvenile violence, and mental health law. His research interests include the relationship of substance use to aggression among criminal defendants and on the quality of forensic evaluations of criminal responsibility. He lectures nationally on the topics of violence risk assessment, juvenile violence, substance use and violence, the assessment of sex offenders, correctional psychiatry, and malpractice issues in mental health.
