

Anjee Mahajan, M.D.

Philosophy of Care

I believe it is important to create a trustful and caring relationship with all of my patients. I aim to treat all patients as I would want my own family and friends treated. My goal is to provide you with my own expertise and education to allow you to better make healthcare decisions. I value your trust in me and look forward to partnering to improve your health.

Clinical Interests

Dr. Mahajan is a board certified hematologist and oncologist. She has a clinical and research interest in thrombosis and hemostasis (bleeding disorders). She has expertise in treatment of venous thromboembolism (including deep vein thrombosis and pulmonary embolism) as well as cancer-associated thrombosis.

Research/Academic Interests

Dr. Mahajan's research focuses on using large datasets to explore outcomes in venous thromboembolism, particularly in the area of cancer-associated thrombosis.
